Weekly Prayers for March 2023

Prayer for the week of March 5, 2023: Dear Father, thank You for our pastors and wives participating in the district PALS program. Grant them wisdom as they learn more about parish ministry. Bless our LCMS Northern Illinois District PALS Leaders, Rev. Dr. Leonard Payton and his wife, Lori, with continued passion for their service. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Prayer for the week of March 12, 2023: Lord of All People, thank You for the gift of diverse peoples, languages and cultures. Bless our pastors and leaders who teach about Jesus in a heart language other than English. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Prayer for the week of March 19, 2023: God of Creation, thank You for the many gifts You provide to the members of Your body in Christ. Thank You for the networking groups in our district that offer opportunities to learn best practices and to share ideas and concerns around a common purpose. Strengthen the bonds of fellowship within these groups as they serve Your church. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Prayer for the week of March 26, 2023: Almighty God, thank You that we are all uniquely created and that we all learn in unique ways. Thank You for organizations that strive to strengthen faith in You through physical, emotional, and spiritual means. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.
